cymbal. I may have faith and understand, but if I have not love I am nothing. If I feed and clothe poor but have not love I gain nothing.

Love is patient; love is kind; it does not envy, boast, and is not proud.

Love is not rude, is not self-seeking, is not provoked, and keeps no list of wrongs.

Lovedoesnot delight in evil, but rejoices in the truth.

Love protects always
Faith, hope, and love will all remain, but the greatest is love.
Spoken: A: But where there are prophecies, they shall fail. Where there are tongues, they shall cease. Where there is knowledge, it shall pass away.

B: For we know in part, and we prophecy in part. But when that which is perfect comes, the imperfect shall disappear.

C: When I was a child, I spoke as a child. I understood as a child, I thought as a child. But when I became an adult, I put away childish things.

D: Now, we see through a glass darkly.
E: Then, we shall see face to face.
F: Now, I know in part. G: Then, I shall know completely, even as I am completely known.
